

Jacqueline Harvey

Post Visit Activity

1. Who made the biggest impression on Jacqueline when she was in primary school?

Mr. Watson

Mrs. Hogan

2. How did this person make such a big impression?

3. Alice-Miranda introduces herself to everyone by saying:
"Hello, my name is Alice-Miranda Highton-Smith-Kennington-Jones and I'm very pleased to meet you".
Why is it important to make proper introductions to new people you meet?

4. How would you best describe Alice-Miranda?

5. Jacqueline's website (www.jacquelineharvey.com.au) has a Alice-Miranda name generator. Put in your name and all sorts of interesting names pop up. What is your favourite?

6. Alice-Miranda has had many adventures at school, at home, on a boat cruising the Mediterranean, in New York City, in Paris, in Japan, at camp and at the Queen's Palace. Can you think of an adventure you'd like to go on and what may happen?

7. Alice-Miranda attends boarding school at Winchesterfield-Downsfordvale Academy for Proper Young Ladies and shares a room with her best friend Millie. What would be the best thing, and the worst thing about sharing a room with your best friend?
